"We wanted a destination wedding but something within driving distance for our friends and family. We liked the idea of being married in an old building but nothing traditional. We love the eclectic and sophisticated feel of the Mansion. It had all of the old character that we wanted but with a very stylish twist. We loved it from the moment we laid eyes on it!"

Close to 90 family members and friends came from all over the US to share in the celebration. "We loaded welcome bags instead of favors. It included a homemade bottle of wine, snacks, pamphlets and water. Everything had a special label with our names on it."

Old Savannah Tours picked up any guests staying in nearby hotels and transported them in a trolley to the Mansion on Forsyth Park. "Our favorite moment was seeing each other for the first time in the lounge. We opted to see each other before the wedding and I am so glad that we did! We have amazing photographs from it and it was just such a special memory." Brandy wore a Casablanca, dropped waist gown with scalloped edge lace bodice and layered skirt while "Sticky" wore a tux from After Six. Brandy carried an array of black magic roses, deep plum calla lilies, magenta roses and magenta orchids.

While a guitarist and trumpeter provided the music for the elegant ceremony in the Marble Garden Courtyard, the Coconut Grove Band led the party for the reception and dinner in the ballroom. Custom Cakes created a black three-tiered cake of dark chocolate and filling with champagne scrolling on the outside.

"Our guests thought it was the most elegant wedding they had ever attended! They enjoyed visiting the city of Savannah as well as attending our wedding. My Mom was especially impressed at how everything was taken care of and that she could actually enjoy the day. It is one of the most beautiful and unique places to be married and/or have a reception! Everything from the decor to the food was absolutely amazing. I would say the best part, other than the marriage of course, would be the awesome vendors that we worked with, in particular Jeannie Greene and our photographers. The wedding would not have been as perfect without everything that they did for us. We were so grateful to have them."
